Judges

This Court having held a hearing at 11:30 a.m. on January 22, 2007, to allow Court Reporter Dorothy M. Dungey (R 260) to show cause why she should not be held in contempt for failure to timely file the transcripts in case number 272163, Randolph Markham v Sunoco Inc; and

Reporter Dungey having appeared at the hearing and presented her reasons for the delay in filing the transcripts; and

Reporter Dungey having stated that she had finished producing the transcripts but had not yet filed the notice of filing the transcripts in either the trial court or the Court of Appeals:

The Court ORDERS that Court Reporter Dorothy M. Dungey (R 260) is found to be in CONTEMPT of this Court.

The Court further ORDERS that Reporter Dungey is to file the transcripts and notice of filing transcripts with the trial court, and file the notice of filing transcripts with the Court of Appeals, before 5:00 p.m. on January 22, 2007. If Reporter Dungey fails to complete the filings as ordered, she is to report to the Ingham County Jail in Mason, Michigan, where she shall remain incarcerated until the transcripts and the proper notices are filed.
